

Ignatian Currents

October 5 & 6, 2018

A Pilgrim Spirituality for the 21st Century:

Music and the Listening Heart &
The Grace of Accompanying
Others in a Divided World

Presented by Dr. Christopher Pramuk

Friday, October 5

7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Coffee and conversation at 6:30 p.m.

Saturday, October 6

9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Dr. Christopher Pramuk is the chair of Ignatian Thought and Imagination, and associate professor of theology at Regis University in Denver, Colorado. His books include Hope Sings, So Beautiful: Graced Encounters Across the Color Line (2013), a sustained meditation on race relations in society and church, and two award-winning studies of Thomas Merton and his relationship to the Feminine Divine.

Jesuit Retreat House
5629 State Road, Parma, OH 44134 | (440) 884-9300 | www.jrh-cleveland.org

